

Thursday

Mindful Artmaking with Natural Journals

5:00 - 5:50 PMPM CST on Thursday, April 13th

Virtual Only

Chelsea Friberg

Are you interested in making more time for nature and mindful artmaking? During this presentation, participants will learn more about nature journal strategies and resources, spend time creating their own observational drawings, and engage in a community discussion about the importance of social–emotional learning in the art classroom.

Friday

Ecology and Environment Interest Group Business Meeting

11:30 AM - 12:20 PM CST on Friday, April 14th

In Person: Grand Hyatt/Republic B/Level 4

Joy Bertling, Nicholas Leonard, Jody Stokes-Casey, Alice Wexler

Join Ecology and Environment Interest Group (EEIG) members as they discuss the Interest Group's work over the past year. Additionally, EEIG award winners will present their work.

Eco-Visualization as STEAM: Visualizing Local Water Quality Data

8:00 - 8:50 AM CST on Friday, April 14th

In Person and Virtual: Grand Hyatt/Lone StarC/Level 2

Amanda Galbraith, Joy Bertling, Lynn Liao Hodge, Rita Swartzentruber, Tabitha Nichole Wandell

Through eco-visualization, artists, designers, scientists, and concerned citizens aim to unsettle anthropocentric modes of being in the world, render ecological relationships visible, and embolden sustainable acts. Come learn about a STEAM curriculum where middle school students engaged in eco-visualization through investigating and then visualizing local water quality data.

Saturday

Celebrating Our Social and Ecological Communities with the 4PEACE Mural Project [Sold Out]

11:30 AM - 1:20 PM CST on Saturday. April 15th
In Person Ticket Required: Grand Hyatt/Travis CD/Level 3
Lori J. Santos

Experience the 4PEACE project through creating your unique and meaningful puzzle piece with eco-friendly art media. Learn how students around the world shared a pledge for social and environmental peace, and bring this project to your classroom, where your students can be a part of 4PEACE too.

Our Changing Planet: Environmental Justice Through Artmaking

12:30 AM - 1:20 PM CST on Saturday. April 15th
In Person: Grand Hyatt/Texas C/Level 4
Trena Noval, Constance Moore, Lindsey Shepard, Indi McCassey

In this hands-on session, you will learn about a district-wide teacher leader professional development program that provides deep experiences in arts practices, using contemporary art models, culturally responsive pedagogy, and environmental awareness supporting teachers and students as creative environmental problem solvers in their local community.